OMGO: Office Massage Services for a Relaxed Workplace

At OMGO, we are dedicated to alleviating workplace stress and enhancing productivity, all while supporting companies in optimizing their corporate tax liabilities. With workplace stress being one of today's most pervasive challenges, we deliver a sophisticated and effective solution to address it.

Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) Head, Neck, and Shoulder Massage Benefits:

This ancient technique offers the following benefits for your company:

Stress Relief: Immediate tension release for a calmer and more focused work environment.

Rejuvenation: Infuses fresh energy to enhance efficiency in task completion.

Pressure Reduction: Alleviates pain caused by static posture, improving overall comfort.

Well-being: Supports physical and mental balance, boosting performance.

Cohesive Atmosphere: Fosters a stronger sense of unity and team spirit in the workplace.

Why Select Us?

Efficiency: We efficiently meet high-volume demands daily.

Optimized: Our services effortlessly integrate into any office environment.

Direct Desk-Side Massage: Our massages are delivered right at employees' desks, ensuring minimal disruption to their workflow.

Short, Effective Sessions: We offer 10-15-minute rejuvenating sessions per person.

No Oils or Creams: Our massages require no oils or creams.

Expertise: Our reflexology acupressure massages, grounded in Traditional Chinese Medicine, are executed with exceptional skill.

Mobile Massage: We also serve production workers with mobile massage services.

OMGO offers more!

Our reflexology-based acupressure massage targets key pressure points to energize internal organ systems. With our rapid, holistic service, we empower your team to maintain overall well-being and health. Experience the powerful benefits of self-healing, revitalization, and mental clarity through our comprehensive office wellness solutions.

Knowledge and expertise in one hand!

Reflexology and acupressure therapy work in harmony to restore balance and well-being to the body, mind, and spirit.

Seamless Integration

The services are designed to seamlessly adapt to the specific needs of your organization without any preconditions being imposed. The routine is tailored to your requirements, and the solutions can be effortlessly integrated into the existing IT infrastructure, including appointment scheduling systems. Today, the most popular office design is the Open-Office concept, which allows OMGO to deliver deskside massages from desk to desk, maximizing time efficiency while ensuring employees' rejuvenation and revitalization without interruption.
